

Chapman University

Chapman University, founded in 1861, is one of the oldest and most prestigious private universities in California. Known for its blend of professional programs and the liberal arts, the university is comprised of ten schools and colleges: Crean College of Health and Behavioral Sciences, College of Educational Studies, College of Performing Arts, Dale E. Fowler School of Law, George L. Argyros School of Business and Economics, Lawrence and Kristina Dodge College of Film and Media Arts, Schmid College of Science and Technology, School of Communication, School of Pharmacy and Wilkinson College of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Consistently ranked in the list of top universities in the nation by U.S. News & World Report and The Princeton Review, Chapman University has more than 400 full-time faculty members and enrolls more than 8,000 undergraduate, graduate and law students.

Mission Statement

To provide personalized education of distinction that leads to inquiring, ethical and productive lives as global citizens.

Vision Statement

Chapman University will be a student-centered institution, recognized nationally and internationally as a center of academic and personal excellence that prepares our students to contribute to a global society.

