

The Lamar University Foundation Mission

The Lamar University Foundation serves as the preferred channel for private gifts to support the educational mission of Lamar University. Private philanthropy provides the funds necessary to attract and retain the finest students and faculty to the University and provides much of the financial assistance that many of our students need in order to reach their education goals.

Donors who take advantage of the various options available through planned giving create a lasting legacy at Lamar University. Generations of students will remember you as a generous benefactor and friend who made a significant difference in their lives and the life of Lamar University.
