

The Gadsden Cultural Arts Foundation Mission

Our mission is to enrich lives, support artistic and cultural progress, affirm individual value and dignity, and to promote a sense of well-being for all people.

The Gadsden Cultural Arts Foundation serves as a hub of community arts education and operates as an independent, non-profit cultural arts organization.

We accomplish our goals using the following programs and initiatives:

- Imagination Place Children's Museum and
- Outreach/Offsite programs
- Downtown Dance Conservatory
- Music Center at Temple Beth Israel
- Etowah Youth Orchestras
- Gadsden Community School for the Arts
- Concerts, lectures and live audience events
- YouthALIVE!
- Coosa Valley Model Railroad
- pARTnerships / with City, Walnut Gallery, GMA and GSCC
- Gadsden Reads

Our facilities include: Mary G. Hardin Center for Cultural Arts, Imagination Place, Downtown Dance Conservatory, The Music Center at the Temple, the Gunn Bellenger House, and 210 Locust Street.

